

PROSPECTUS:

2019 Women in Neuroradiology Leadership Award

DESCRIPTION

In 2012, the Foundation of the American Society of Neuroradiology (FASNR), American College of Radiology (ACR), and American Association for Women Radiologists (AAWR) established an award to provide leadership opportunities for women in neuroradiology. Since neuroradiologists must be leaders in the field, the primary focus of this award mechanism is to support mid-career women with some demonstrated experience and promise for leadership in Neuroradiology. The objectives are to provide the award recipient with additional skills and insights to enhance opportunities for advancement.

The award recipient will receive funding to cover tuition and transportation costs to attend the ACR 2019 Radiology Leadership Institute (RLI) Summit in conjunction with Babson College in Wellesley, Massachusetts, to be held at the Babson Executive Conference Center, September 6-8, 2019. All other expenditures will be at the expense of the award recipient. To learn more about the 2019 RLI Summit go to <https://www.acr.org/Practice-Management-Quality-Informatics/Radiology-Leadership-Institute/Programs-and-Training/Leadership-Summit>

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must have a MD degree or DO degree, plus subspecialty certification in Neuroradiology, or its equivalent for International candidates. Applicants must have demonstrated some experience and promise for leadership in neuroradiology and must be a current member in good standing of ASNR, ACR, and AAWR. Strong consideration will be given to applicants from practices and institutions that show a commitment to the applicant's career development.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

All applications should include (applications will only be accepted electronically; no hard copy documents by mail or fax will be accepted):

- A. Completed application form
- B. Current curriculum vitae
- C. Statement from the applicant that describes the applicant's career goals and objectives. Applicant should describe their professional aspirations and goals for attending the 2019 ACR Radiology Leadership Institute Summit. Applicant should also include a brief description of other local or national leadership conferences attended.
- D. Two (2) letters of support from academic chair or practice leader and from a leader outside of the applicant's department or practice but relevant to leadership area of interest.
- E. Deadline for receipt of applications and required documentation is 9:00 AM Central Standard Time (CST), Monday, April 8, 2019. Late applications will not be accepted. Applications and required documentation must be submitted electronically (in .pdf or .doc format) to Theresa Espinosa at tespinosa@asnr.org. On the subject line, indicate Women in Neuroradiology Leadership Award.

AWARD SELECTION PROCESS

- A. Selection of the award recipient will be in May 2019, with subsequent notification of the award recipient. All those with interest in the award, or employees of an institution that may be involved in the award, shall recuse themselves from the selection process.

- B. Announcement of the award will be made on the ASNR website and at the ASNR 58th Annual Meeting, Las Vegas, Nevada, in May 2020. This will be followed by announcement on the ACR and AAWR websites.

METHOD OF NOMINATION

- A. Award will be designated and administered by The Foundation of the American Society of Neuroradiology.
- B. The selection of the recipient will be made by the Review Committee, which consists of the Co-Chairs of the Foundation of the ASNR as well as a reviewer from both the ACR and the AAWR.

POST RADIOLOGY LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE SUMMIT

Within six (6) months of attending the 2019 ACR Radiology Leadership Institute, the award recipient must submit a brief written summary detailing how attending the Radiology Leadership Institute Summit assisted in their professional development, insights gained, etc. Summaries may be published on the Foundation of the ASNR website and in other promotional communications supported by the ASNR, ACR and AAWR.
